

We loved our life in Enumclaw, We knew every one in school and town.

Every summer vacation we spent two weeks up at Greenwater which was my fathers vacation. He was a forest ranger, watching for fires, and one time he found a dead man who had been shot.

The folks bought a lot on the river from Colonel ? who at that time owned the town. They made a down payment and then a devastating rain came along and washed the property away. Colonel ? gave them their down - payment back.
